UM GRADUATE JOINS AID PROGRAM IN VIETNAM

Moises M. de Guzman, a former University of Montana student, has joined the Agency for International Development of the U.S. State Department. He will be assigned to Saigon, Vietnam, as an Assistant Provincial Representative.

AID administers United States foreign assistance programs. Its function is to assist developing nations to become self-sustaining.

Goods and services are provided to increase food production, improve education and health, stabilize the economy, help refugees and, in general, to pacify the country and raise the quality of the people's lives.

De Guzman, a former social studies teacher at Castlemont High School in Oakland, Calif., was born in the Philippines. He graduated from San Jose State College in 1950 and received a master's degree in history and political science from UM in 1952.

De Guzman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso de Guzman of Santa Clara, Calif. He has four children: Michael, 12; Timothy, 11; Anthony, 8; and Kathleen, 2.
